

A LOVER TO BE EXTRADITED.

CAME HERE WITH HIS FIANCÉE TO BE MARRIED AND WILL BE SENT BACK TO HOLLAND FOR ABDUCTION.

Among the passengers on board the steamship Obdam when she arrived in port yesterday morning were Johannes Donker, twenty-eight years old, and Catharina Van Sten, nineteen years old, who sought to make a home for themselves in America. They had known each other for years in Holland and decided to face life's fortunes together; but the drastic laws of their native land soon interrupted this arrangement.

As soon as the vessel reached her dock Donker was arrested by Deputy United States Marshal, charged on complaint of the Consular Agent Holland, John R. Planck, with having abducted Catharina. Donker was released before United States Commissioner Alexander on extradition proceedings. He was accompanied by Catharina who, however, was not under arrest.

Donker was held for extradition. Catharina agreed to return. They were locked up in Ludlow Street jail.

UNDERGROUND RAILWAY PLANS.

SUMMER WORK OF THE ENGINEER'S STAFF FILLS TEN LARGE VOLUMES.

The Rapid Transit Commissioners met yesterday at No. 26 Broadway, and W. H. Parsons, the engineer, made a verbal report concerning the investigation and surveys made by him for the underground railway. He said he and his assistants examined every building from the Battery to Fifty-ninth-st., in Broadway, and in Fourth-ave, from Fourteenth-st. to Thirty-third-st. He submitted about three hundred plans giving a full description of the vaults, areas and buildings along the route. The plans and surveys embrace ten big volumes and are the work of the summer months. One of the volumes was devoted to the plans for the underground stations and the various approaches to them.

The plans were approved, and Commissioner Chapman offered a resolution to the effect that a regulation be made that the Board of Estimate and Apportionment for the sum of $14,772.52, in addition to the unexpended balance of June, this sum was to pay to the chief engineer and his assistants. The meeting then adjourned until Tuesday next.
